Dear Mr. Aplon:

It is a pleasure and a privilege to hear from you.

It appears from your remarks that my letter has been misleading.

I have checked the networks libraries and files and have yet to find a script, tape or recording that would help me. I have talked to many people, written over 1,000 letters and worked very hard.

The consensus of opinion is that I should check with all the actors, directors and producers for material and for their invaluable recollections.

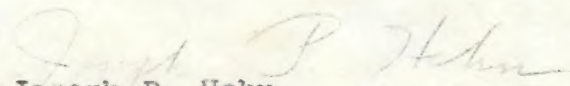

I know that you are busy; so is everyone I have contacted. So am I; I work 20 hours a day.

This project will not be completed in a month or in a year. I do hope you will find a little time in the future to tell me about your association with CAPTAIN MIDNIGHT and other serials. I will be happy to provide you with tape.

The best of luck in your new show.

Kind regards.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph P. Hehn

Dear Sir:

Although I find the idea of a "Definitive History of Juvenile Adventure Radio Serials", a commendable one, I am at this time, too busy with rehearsals in a new Broadway show, to undertake such an overwhelming assignment, which, from your letter, is in fact, what you wish me to do.

I suggest, therefore, that a more direct source of material and information, i.e., Scripts, Recordings, cast and other memorabilia, would be the archives of N.B.C., C.B.S., A.B.C., R.C.A., and the Mutual Network. I'm sure their information and files would be far more comprehensive than any you might obtain from individual actors, directors etc.

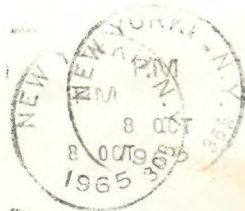

Wishing you good luck and every success in your venture, I am,

Sincerely yours,

BORIS APFEL
